Don't miss our upcoming AGM in October

Our guest speakers this year are Luke and Susie Holt, presenters of the 'Luke & Susie' radio show which airs Monday to Friday on Riverland Life FM.

Luke and Susie will not be present physically (they live in Queensland) but will present via video link.

Members are invited to attend our AGM at Living Waters Christian Community in Loxton. We hope also to see representatives from our corporate members, that is, member church groups.

If you are unable to attend you may like to participate via proxy voting. Please contact us if you need a copy of our proxy voting form.

Everyone is invited to come to our AGM. Our AGM is not just for members and not just for going through the motions of elections. It is an excellent opportunity to hear how the station is travelling and what we're planning into the future.

We look forward to seeing you there!

Meet the Current RLFM Board

With the AGM coming up very soon it's seems a good time to re-introduce our current Board.

This year we farewell Paul Devenport, who at time of writing, is preparing to leave the Riverland to serve with the Glen Osmond Anglican Parish.

Paul has been an energetic member of the Board, always willing to jump in and help at every opportunity and in many ways, but especially if it involves a chance to get behind the microphone!

He is leaving a big hole and we look to our Riverland Christian community to help us fill the gap he is leaving behind.

We wish him every success at his new parish and are sure that he will be a blessing there as he has been here in the Riverland.

All welcome!

• New Station Assistant

- Thanks to a grant from the Community Broadcasting Foundation we are again able to employ a station assistant for a few hours per week to help in various areas at the station.
- This time Erin Taylor has taken on the role. Erin also volunteers a lot of her time producing her radio shows so she already has some useful experience for the job.
- Her work for the station involves audio production work, promotions and helping to keep our radio content up to date.
- Erin's involvement will assist with retaining skills and knowledge of station operations and developing new processes as needed.

Meet Sophie Aurora

Local poet and blogger Sophie Aurora is sharing her poems with us on the radio.

Sophie's poems are personal reflections expressing her faith and relationship with God.

You can hear Sophie's poems at a few different times, at approximately 12:10pm on Wednesdays, 5:50pm on Fridays and 9:50am on Sundays.

OB at Pingpongathon

Our OB team took a turn at the Pingpongathon in Loxton on Saturday 11th September, chatting live on radio with organisers and participants and enjoying the atmosphere. The Pingpongathon is held to raise awareness and funds to help end slavery and exploitation of children in South-East Asia.

Board Training Day

On Saturday 21st August the Board took part in a Governance training session with SA Community

Broadcasters Association representatives Tim Borgas and Heather Dunn.

Tim and Heather have between them decades of experience in community broadcasting and management.

The meeting also focussed on preparing for our licence renewal application, a process that begins for us this financial year.
